

MEMORY CARD

How have you been touched by the BPP ?

Hearing these stories remind me of stories from my father. He was from a place called Russell City. It was an area in Hayward where black people, white people, & Hispanics lived in the 40's until the early 60's. They didn't have roads there, they had community gardens, and every one got along. They had a community garden. ~~The~~ The community ended up being condemned in the early 60's, bc the City Council of Hayward couldn't stand seeing people of all races getting along.
